

Berlin Historical Society Meeting Notice for July 27, 2010

The July meeting of the Berlin Historical Society will be held at the Berlin office building on Tuesday, July 27, 2010 at 7:00 PM.

At this meeting we will talk about our successful exhibit at the Vermont History Expo in Tunbridge. We met someone at the Expo who was interested in Cornelius Nye, a Berlin resident who was killed in the Civil War. He has visited our office and should be able to provide us with additional information regarding Cornelius as well as other Berlin related Civil War information. Also we will discuss Asahel Nye who lived at the time of the murder at Berlin Pond. The successful bidder on e-bay sent us a copy of his image (below) along with information about Asahel.

We need a volunteer to clip current Berlin information from local papers to add to our scrapbook collection. Any takers?

We also need program material for future meetings.
