

Berlin Historical Society Notice of May 13, 2008 Potluck/Program Meeting

The Annual Dinner meeting of the Berlin Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, May 13, 2008 @ the First Congregational Church Parrish Hall in Berlin Corner. The pot luck dinner will start at 6:00 PM with the speaker program beginning about 7:00.

Our speaker this year is Howard Coffin who has written three books on the Civil War, Full Duty, Nine Months to Gettysburg and The Battered Stars. His topic for our program is “Civil War Discoveries in Vermont” which is the subject of a new book that he is presently working on. He has interviewed the Berlin Historical Society in preparation for the book and we are hopeful that Berlin will be one of the Vermont towns that will be included in his story.

Cheryl Poor is coordinating the pot luck dinner. If you plan to attend the dinner, please call Cheryl at 223-5306 to inform her of what you plan to bring.

The public is welcome and there is no charge for the program. So please inform your friends and better yet bring someone with you. If the dinner isn't of interest you, you may come to hear the speaker. However, take my word for it the dinner has always been a real treat.

Richard Turner

Secretary