Meetings start at 7pm, come at 6:30pm to look at our collection or visit. Meetings are held at the Town office at 108 Shed Road in Berlin unless otherwise noted. More programs are in the works, consider being on our email list to receive notices, you can also call our office line for an updated recorded message.

Annual membership dues ($10 per person) are received with great appreciation. These dues help support the Berlin Historical Society efforts and there are a few perks, such as a discount on our “A Place to Pass Through: Berlin, Vermont 1820-1991” book and on the recent airport themed postcards we had printed. Another book we offer is “from Barre-Montpelier to E. F. Knapp The Story of a Small Airport in Berlin, Vermont” by Richard Turner.
