

Berlin Resource Line
Recorded message updated Fridays
Call 802-552-8805

March 11, 2022

Thanks for calling the Berlin Resource Line, on Friday, March 11th

*

Did you see CBS Sunday Morning on March 6th? Their "Lessons from the 1918 Spanish Flu epidemic" featured Brian Zecchinelli from the Wayside! It can still be found on the CBS News website.

<https://www.cbsnews.com/news/lessons-from-the-1918-spanish-flu-epidemic>

*

Do you have photos of a home or perhaps even a barn that is no longer in Berlin, whether torn down or burned down? Or perhaps even just an old photo of a house that is still standing! The Berlin Historical Society would be greatly appreciate your taking the time to share these! The Historical Society can be reached at 802-552-8804 or historicalsocietyberlinvt@gmail.com

Also, if you have an interest in history consider getting on the Historical Society email list to receive notice of upcoming programs and links to Vermont history programs online.

*

There are no meetings the week of March 14th.

Monday, March 21st the Selectboard meets 6pm

Monday, March 28th the Public Works Board meets 7pm.

*

An abbreviated run down once again on voting from Town Meeting Day

All items on the Town ballot passed. Carl Parton and Joe Staab have been welcomed onto the Selectboard. 565 from our checklist voted with 196 of those being in person. Details can be found on the front door of the Town offices and on the Town website <http://www.berlinvt.org>

All items on the Washington Central Unified Union School District ballot passed In Berlin 665 from the checklist returned school ballots. Details can be found on the main page of the WCUUSD website:

<https://www.wcsu32.org>

The Career Center was approved to be its own school district which will include students from 18 towns here in Central Vermont. A board member from the WCUUSD district will need to be appointed.

*

The next Resource Line update will be Friday, March 18th